I. Early Warning Signals Webinar

The Early Warning Signals webinar is a part of the tipping points discussion series which aims to advance the knowledge about tipping elements, irreversibility, and abrupt changes in the Earth system. It supports efforts to increase consistency in treatment of tipping elements in the scientific community, develop a research agenda, and design joint experiments and ideas for a Tipping Element Model Intercomparison Project (TipMip). This discussion series is a joint activity of the Analysis, Integration, and Modelling of the Earth System (AIMES) global research project of Future Earth, the Earth Commission Working Group 1 Earth and Human Systems Intercomparison Modelling Project (EHSMIP) under the Global Commons Alliance and the Safe Landing Climates Lighthouse Activity of World Climate Research Program (WCRP).

Date: 29 January 2024, 14:30More information and registration Here.II. MSCA Staff Exchanges 2023-HORIZON-MSCA-2023-SE-01-01

The MSCA Staff Exchanges promote innovative international, inter-sectoral and interdisciplinary collaboration in research and innovation through exchanging staff and sharing knowledge and ideas at all stages of the innovation chain. The scheme fosters a shared culture of research and innovation that welcomes and rewards creativity and entrepreneurship and helps turn ideas into innovative products, services or processes. MSCA Staff Exchanges involve organisations from the academic and non-academic sectors (including SMEs) from across the globe. Support is provided for international, inter-sectoral and interdisciplinary mobility of R&I staff leading to knowledge transfer between participating organisations.

Deadline: 28 February 2024 17:00:00 Brussels time

You can read more information about the programme Here.

III. SRI2024 Scholarships for Early Career Scientists

In 2024, the Sustainability Research & Innovation Congress (SRI) will be organized in collaboration with Sustainability Science Days (SSD) and held from 10 - 14 June in Helsinki and Espoo, Finland. A limited number of scholarships to attend SRI/SSD is available for early career researchers from low- and middle-income countries covering congress registration, travel and accommodation. Recipients must have an accepted session in the SRI/SSD program.

Deadline: 5 February 2024

IV. What's on the Horizon? Framing the next 40 years of European R&I

On the occasion of its annual Network conference, Science|Business will convene international leaders from across the science, technology and innovation spectrum to take stock of what the FPs have delivered to date, analyse their impact on Europe and on global R&D cooperation, and discuss future directions for the EU in science and technology. Among the central themes to be addressed: The EU institutions and member-states begin their deliberations on what will succeed Horizon Europe, how should the Framework Programme evolve in its 10th edition, and is the current approach the best in the long run? Is Europe ready to invest what it takes to remain a global leader in critical technology domains? Can policy and regulation keep pace with breakthrough science and drive innovation in industrial R&D ecosystems?

Place & Time: Hybrid, 12-13 February 2024

V. Eurostars call for projects MAR 2024

The Eurostars is part of the European Partnership on Innovative SMEs. The partnership is co-funded by the European Union through Horizon Europe. Eurostars is a funding instrument that supports innovative SMEs and project partners (large companies, universities, research organisations and other types of organisations) by funding international collaborative R&D and innovation projects. By participating, organisations can access public funding for international collaborative R&D projects in all fields. Your project consortium must have an innovative SME in the leading role, but it can also include other types of organisations like large companies, universities, research organisations and more.

Deadline: 14 March 2024, 14:00 CET

VI. Other upcoming events

- ERC-2024-PERA

With the ERC Public Engagement with Research award, the ERC wishes to recognise and reward outstanding science communicators among its Principal Investigators who successfully engage audiences outside their domain with ERC-funded research. Public engagement is defined for the purposes of this prize as the involvement of the public in the design, conduct or dissemination of activities funded by the ERC. Engagement is a two-way process, involving interaction and mutual understanding for mutual benefit. The deadline of the application is 21 February 17:00:00 Brussels time. You can read more about the award Here.
