- PIFI does not accept direct applications from foreign scientific research staff.
- Foreign applicants must find a CAS scientist as his or her host researcher, who would recommend him or her for PIFI application.
- PIFI is open to applications all year round. You can log onto the website to provide your resume information and then follow the progress of your application.
- Applications should be reviewed at least 3-6 months after submission. Appraisal results are released in June, September and December of each year.
